

Franklin County Quilter's Guild April 2019 Newsletter

April 10, 2019

Greetings:

Wow! What a great Quilt Show! This was my first time to watch all the coordinated work that went into setting the show up on Friday and then the same thing in reverse on Sunday. Very impressive. I look forward to hearing from the report from the Quilt Show Committee. It seemed to me that from a quality point of view as well as a financial reckoning it was quite a success.

There are two things on the agenda I would like to draw your attention to. One is the Nominations Committee. Please consider saying yes when they ask you to sign up for positions for the coming year.

Also, it is time to gather suggestions for recipients for our next year's Charity Raffle quilt. Please be thinking this over.

Hope to see you there.

March 22, 2019 Franklin County Quilters Guild Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order at 6PM by President John Rouleau. There were 27 members present. John read two Thank You notes the Guild received for our donations of Comfort Quilts, one from Janet McCarthy, the Executive Director of Franklin County Home Health and the other from Adrienne Perrino of Bags for Love.

The Minutes of the February meeting were accepted with the change of the date of the Rag Quilt workshop from 2/23 to 2/24 on a motion from Bonnie Evans, 2nd by Kay Benedict. Due to the Treasurer's trip to Italy, there was no March 2019 financial report.

Quilt Show: It was announced that there were still opportunities for members to volunteer before, after and during the show. There are also appointments still available for quilt appraisals. Kay Benedict announced that there are 76 quilts registered for the show and that with the Raffle, Charity and Comfort quilts on display, there will be over 100 quilts for attendees to view. Kay also gave directions on how quilts should be prepared for the show. The will be accepted on Friday 4/5 from noon to 2 PM.

Program: Due to the snow storm, Jessica's VanDenburgh's presentation on color has been rescheduled to Friday, June 21st. The Guild's June meeting and program will be held at the Church of the Rock. Her workshop on making bags will be on the 21st as well, during the daytime at Northwestern Medical Center.

The Teacup Auction and Potluck will take place at the May meeting.

Fundraising: Through the Guild's fundraising efforts $1,020 has been raised to purchase supplies for Comfort Quilts and $1,500 was raised to sponsor the Quilt Show. We do not charge admission for the Quilt Show and sponsors are sought to help defray the costs of renting City Hall, liability insurance, publicity for the show, etc.

Block of the Month: The quilt block, Box Kite was introduced. It will be 12.5 inches unfinished. The pattern can be located on Quilter's Cache and some printed directions were passed out at the meeting.

The membership drawing was won by Cathy. The meeting closed with Show and Tell.

Respectfully Submitted by,
Helen Short, Secretary
