

Franklin County Quilter's Guild May 2019 Newsletter

May 1, 2019

Greetings:

It seemed fitting to open a May 1st newsletter with a picture of flowers and what better picture than the flowers on Rose's quilt. My apologies to Rose for the possibly unwanted attention but I just couldn't resist. Happy Spring to you all.

Please look over this month's agenda – there are several things to be thinking about. Next year's Charity Raffle quilt, nominations, and replacing the Quilt Show ballot clipboards are a few.

Hope to see you there.

Adjourn

April 12, 2019 Franklin County Quilters Guild Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order at 6:05 pm by President John Rouleau. There were 32 members present and 4 guests. Sue Pritt is going to do a presentation tonight and a work shop tomorrow from 9:30-3:00 at the hospital.

The Minutes of the March meeting were accepted on a motion from Bonnie Evans and 2nd by Kris Kilburn. Due to the Treasure's trip to Italy, there was no April 2019 financial report.

Quilt Show: Guest donations to the Guild were $550.00, quilt raffle earned $1610.00 and the Tea Cup auction raised $675.00. The Vendors left three gifts to be raffled off to our guild members. Teri Brunelle, Natalie Good and Margaret Miller were the winners. The Quilt show was a success and thank you to everyone that set-up and took down. Row managers were awarded flowers as a thank you from Kay Benedict. Denise Chase had 51 comfort quilts on display and there were many compliments on the display in the lobby. A big thank you goes out to all the volunteers.

Program: Due to the snow storm, Jessica's VanDenburgh's presentation on color has been rescheduled to Friday, June 21st. The Guild's June meeting and program will be held at the Church of the Rock. Her workshop on making bags will be on the 21st as well, during the daytime at Northwestern Medical Center. Next month will be our Pot Luck and Tea Cup auction, please remember to bring items for the auction.

New Business: The nomination committee will be asking members to step up and fill any vacancy at the May meeting. If any member wants to help a lady with quilting Kris Kilburn has the lady's name. She is seeking help with sewing.

The membership drawing was won by Rita Dean. The meeting closed with Show and Tell.
